

What is the new electric mobility enhancement scheme for Cyprus?

Read more: Following Wednesday's Cabinet meeting on 25 June 2025, Transport, Communications and Works Minister Alexis Vafeades announced a new electric mobility enhancement scheme for Cyprus, approved by the Council of Ministers and aimed at strengthening the market for fully electric and hybrid vehicles through state resources.

Why is electric vehicle adoption a problem in Cyprus?

Despite government incentives, electric vehicle adoption faces obstacles including high purchase costs, limited charging infrastructure, and extended charging times. Cyprus is developing plans for additional charging points whilst manufacturers introduce faster-charging models.

Which vehicles dominate Cyprus roads in 2025?

Petrol-powered vehicles dominate Cyprus roads with over 60% market share, followed by diesel vehicles at 33%. The breakdown of licensed vehicles by May 2025: Electric vehicle registrations have accelerated since the first subsidy scheme launched in December 2021, rising from 752 units in 2020 to 6,208 by May 2025.

Why is Cyprus launching a new charging point?

Cyprus is developing plans for additional charging points whilst manufacturers introduce faster-charging models. The Road Transport Department previously cited low public response as justification for earlier programme termination, highlighting ongoing challenges in transitioning Cyprus's vehicle fleet toward electrification.

The Council of Ministers approved a new EUR2.5 million electric vehicle incentive scheme on Wednesday, maintaining existing grant levels of up to EUR9,000 for electric cars and EUR7,500 for ...

The transport ministry has announced the fourth call for subsidies under the national plan to promote electromobility, introducing major changes to the way electric vehicle grants in Cyprus are ...

This guide explores the current state of electric cars in Cyprus, costs, incentives, charging infrastructure, and benefits, helping potential buyers and businesses make an informed ...

The new program will offer grants and incentives for both new and used electric and hybrid vehicles, with the goal of expanding access to electric mobility across more income groups. A ...

On June 25, 2025, the Ministry of Transport, Communications, and Works announced the third call for the Electric Vehicle (EV) Subsidy Scheme. This latest round is part of Cyprus's strategic drive toward ...

Application submissions open on June 30, 2025, and the deadline for vehicle registration is December 31, 2025. Once this round of grants is exhausted, a new incentive scheme will be ...

Northern cyprus electric vehicle incentives

Announced by Transport, Communications and Works Minister Alexis Vafeades, the initiative is designed to strengthen the adoption of fully electric and hybrid vehicles through state ...

Cyprus has opened the fourth phase of its electric vehicle incentive scheme, signalling both heightened public interest in electric mobility and the ongoing challenges in meeting national ...

Under the national Electromobility Promotion Scheme, Cyprus provides financial support for the purchase of battery electric vehicles (BEVs), co-financed by the EU Recovery and Resilience ...

Cyprus is preparing to launch a new phase of its electric mobility subsidy programme, expected to be announced before the end of 2025.

Web: <https://www.falconengineering.co.za>

