

This city review examines the business environment and economic landscape of Tirana, Albania, providing insight into key industries, workforce dynamics, infrastructure, and market conditions.

The report focuses on development and condition of office and retail markets of Tirana during 2023

Short-Term Outlook: Projected 3-5% growth over the next 6-12 months, driven by infrastructure improvements

During Q1 2024, the most attractive sector for FDI is Real Estate Activities, a trend that continues from the second quarter of 2023 (84 million euros), followed by Financial and Insurance Activities (74 ...

Tirana is racing toward a new identity, no longer just Albania's capital, but a rising hub of civilization, investment, and innovation. Its skyline, once defined by modest mid-rises, is now ...

In the past two years, financial results have improved, influenced by increased consumption fueled by tourism and the mitigating effect of a weaker Euro on the cost of imported ...

Ongoing infrastructure projects, such as the Tirana-Durrës-Rinas Railway, set to launch this spring, are expected to improve connectivity and bolster tourism. Additionally, the completion of ...

As part of the analysis of Albania's economic performance during 2024 and the outlook for 2025, our report offers an in-depth overview of the key factors that influenced GDP growth, along ...

Understanding the current economic climate is essential for evaluating its impact on the banking industry. This overview highlights the economic context, emerging opportunities, and the ...

Tirana, the capital city of Albania, is experiencing a dynamic shift in its job market as it enters 2024. The city's economy is bolstered by a mix of traditional industries and emerging sectors, contributing to a ...

Tirana industry and market trends

Web: <https://www.falconengineering.co.za>

